

PUBLIC NOTICE

CAUTION REGARDING impersonation of andhra pradesh capital region development authority

It has come to the attention of the Andhra Pradesh Capital Region Development Authority ("APCRDA") that certain individuals, entities, and companies are falsely and fraudulently misrepresenting themselves as representatives, Associates, or authorised agents of APCRDA.

These parties have been found to be impersonating APCRDA by unlawfully using its name, logo, official insignia, seals, and even forged signatures of APCRDA officials. Such impersonation is being carried out with the intent to solicit, allot, assign, or develop land and projects related to the Amaravati Capital City Project, often by making fraudulent promises and offering misleadingly lucrative deals to the general public.

The public is hereby advised to note the following:

1. APCRDA appoints and authorises any individual, entity, or company strictly in accordance with the provisions of the APCRDA Act, 2014 and the applicable Rules and Regulations.
2. The list of all duly appointed and authorised entities/companies is published on the official APCRDA website at <https://crda.ap.gov.in>
3. Members of the public are strongly cautioned not to engage with or entertain any claims, proposals, or offers made by individuals or organisations not listed on the official website.
4. Verify such false and fraudulent claims or representations made in the name of APCRDA.

APCRDA shall not be responsible for any losses, damages, or consequences arising out of interactions with, or reliance on, such fraudulent individuals, entities, or offers.
